

Info session with Google Engineer and Carleton graduate Wenbo Zhu:

“Coding in the Wild: transitioning your academic skills to the tech industry”

Friday, October 14, Minto 2014 (Faculty Boardroom)

Morning session:
9:00 – 10:30 a.m.	Coding in the Wild (laptop / computer not needed)
11:00 – 12:00 p.m./noon	Resume workshop: questions & answers (bring your printed CV if you would like to participate)
Afternoon session:
1:00 – 2:30 p.m.	Coding in the Wild (laptop / computer not needed)
3:00 – 4:00 p.m.	Resume workshop: questions & answers (bring your printed CV if you would like to participate)

To register for one of the sessions, send an email to: engineering.events@carleton.ca

Limited capacity. Registration is on a ‘first come first served’ basis!

Refreshments will be provided.