Claude Shannon Centenary 2016 Ottawa

100 claude shannon 1916-2016

FRI, 15 APR AT 9:30 AM, OTTAWA, ON

The Shannon Conference

By: Canadian Society of Information Theory/University of Ottawa

April 30th this year marks the 100th birthday of Claude Shannon, the Father of the Information Age and a visionary pioneer of computing.

Join us to celebrate Shannon's contributions to mankind and learn the latest technological advances following Shannon's footsteps!

Google "Shannon Conference Ottawa" and register!

Or scan the QR code below to register!

FEATURING

- Talks given by distinguished researchers
- Poster exhibition of technologies following Shannon's works
- FREE lunch, refreshments and souvenirs
- FREE registration

SPEAKERS

Dr. Andrew Eckford York University
What can cell phones tell us about cells (and vice versa)?

Dr. John Lodge Communications Research Centre Canada
Toward Channel Capacity: A Mobile Satellite Communications Perspective

Dr. Carlisle Adams University of Ottawa
The Impact of Shannon's Work on Cryptography

Dr. En-Hui Yang University of Waterloo
Big Data Information Theory: What Would Claude Shannon Do?

Dr. Halim Yanikomeroglu Carleton University
From Shannon's Information Theory to the Information Age

Dr. Diana Inkpen University of Ottawa
Natural Language Processing: From Noisy Chanel Models to Mining Social Media

WHEN: Friday, 15 April 2016 from 9:30 AM to 5:00 PM (EDT)

WHERE: FSS (Faculty of Social Sciences) Room 4007 - University of Ottawa, Ottawa, ON K1N6N5