

October 14 Tri Meet vs. uOttawa and Waterloo

The Carleton Ravens swim team hosted uOttawa and Waterloo for a Tri Meet at the Carleton Pool on October 14. This was the first Ravens meet for 12 Carleton rookies! It was a packed afternoon of racing with some impressive swims.

Carleton was in tough racing against two of the top teams in Eastern Canada. The point scores were:

- Overall: uOttawa: 449; Waterloo: 390; Carleton: 103
- Women: uOttawa: 241; Waterloo: 172; Carleton: 46
- Men: Waterloo: 211; uOttawa: 185; Carleton: 57

Carleton's top swimmer on the men's side was Finn Tuck who won both the 50m backstroke (27.40) and 100m backstroke (58.41). The top woman was Dina Egorov who placed second in the 50m freestyle (27.80).

Finn Tuck scored a total of 23 points. Two rookies, Jack (Zheng Qi) Lu and Declan McGroarty rounded out the top three male Carleton point scorers with 7 and 6 points, respectively.

On the women's side, Dina Egorov had 9 points. She was followed by rookie Joanne Patry with 7 points, and women's team co-captain Qiana Englert with 6 points.

Several swims made Carleton's All-Time Top 20 List:

- Women: Olivia Davis: #8 in 100 back and #16 in 50 back; Anne-Marie Fortier: 100 fly relay split
- Men: Declan McGroarty: #10 in 100 back; Luc Landry: #14 in 100 fly and 100 fly relay split; Jack (Zheng Qi) Lu: 100 free relay split

Here's a link to the full results.

Both Sean Burges and Charles Fortin attended part of the meet to take photographs which was greatly appreciated. Sean posted this photo: <https://www.instagram.com/p/CyY-dSqxxnm/>.